Everything of Local Form To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

The wife of Geo. Stone who resided up in the bend, died this morning.

The man who tries to carry water on both shoulders is sure to get wet sooner or later.

The gentleman who was here some time since talking up an electric line between here and Jackson has returned to this city with his family and will be here for some time. This is the person who built the electric line between East St. Louis and Belleville, and his presence here at this time may mean something interesting to the people of the Cape and those of Jackson.

Stay that barking by using Ballard Horehound Syrup. It arrests the cough, allays irritation of the throat, and relieves congestion of the lungs in a day. It is safe and pleasant to take, and never disappoints.

50 cents. L. Ben. Miller.

The girls of Fredericktown have organized an anti-cigarette club and will not keep company with any young man who smokes cigarettes. Now the boys should retaliate by refusing to associate with any girl who constantly wears a wad of chewing gum between her jaws.

The case of Albert Woodward has no parallel. The man jumped out of the window of a hospital in the suburbs of St. Louis and broke his neck. He then dragged his dead body some distance to an outhouse and shot himself through the head. At least this is how one of the St. Louis papers sizes up the affair.

Uriah Jones, Ezekiah Brown and John Peter Smith will testify to the wonderful curative properties of Dr. Simmons' Cough Syrup. Sample bottles free. Satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Glenn and children left this morning for Colorado Springs where they will remain about a month. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Klosterman who went to St. Louis Saturday will join the Glenn party in that city today and they will make the trip together.

Seems to us that it is about time for the School Board to let the tax-payers know what is being done with the school funds. It is about time for the tax-payers to see a financial statement and if the School Board have not already published a financial statement the DEMOCRAT will publish one free of charge. Our people would like to know where their money goes.

Evil after effects never follow the use of Dr. Bell's Peppermint Chili Tonic. It is a pleasant liver laxative. It makes rich, red blood. It makes stout, sound bone. It makes flesh. It makes rosy cheeks. All of these cures which they stay cured. Dealers guarantee it.

Rev. J. C. Maple is in the city visiting relatives. The editor of the DEMOCRAT was a student in Rev. Maple's school in this city in 1863, and that, perhaps, accounts for his goodness.

Poplar Bluff Republican: Ben Sanders returned on Friday after an absence of six weeks at Daisy, Cape County. He has been acting as a gauger in a distillery at that place.

The grading on the new fair grounds was completed last week and now the work of preparing the grounds for fair in October will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Everything will be ready for the big fair.

Are you lacking in strength and energy? Are you nervous, despondent, irritable, bilious, constipated and generally run down in health? If so, your liver is torpid, and, and a few doses of Herbine will cure you. Herbine has no equal as a health restorer. L. Ben Miller.

A party went out to Three Mile Creek yesterday on a fishing expedition. The fish would not be persuaded to bite so a target rifle was substituted for pole and line and the crowd got all the fish it wanted.

Charleston Enterprise: Over 2,000 acres of corn in this county has already been abandoned as the rains the past two weeks have entirely ruined that much that we know of, and it is estimated that not less than 5,000 will be almost a total loss and the entire corn crop will be cut short 50 per cent. Wheat is damaged almost that bad at present and more rain daily. Our melon crop will hardly be worth harvesting.

TUESDAY.

Dr. Simmons' Sarsaparilla effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs of both sexes. Its action is quick and lasting. Fifty cents and 50 doses.

When the Cape gets the new electric road and the bridge she will fly high.

The show that entertained the people of Haavig Saturday night has gone over into Illinois to afford pleasure to the natives of our sister state.

It appears to be a settled thing that the Cape is to have a new paper. The more the merrier.

Al Chene returned home this afternoon after an absence of nearly two months.

The Cape Brewery and Ice Company has put up a handsome little building in front of the brewery building which is to be used for the general office.

Major Giboney Houck is one of the staff officers in attendance at the encampment of the state militia at Springfield.

Charles Herbst has opened a broom factory in the old Cramer cigar factory on Broadway. He will manufacture all kinds of brooms. This is a factory that will manufacture something used by all good housekeepers and it should be liberally patronized by our home people. What is home without a good broom?

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these complaints or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. Wm. H. Coerver.

Several citizens have spoken to the DEMOCRAT today about the item in yesterday's paper regarding a financial statement from the School Board. These citizens claim it is their right to know just what the school money is spent for and they express themselves as being glad the DEMOCRAT has called attention to the matter.

Admiral Morrison refuses to be consoled. He thinks it is too late now for the marines to do any good even if they should be sent to China. The Admiral regrets that he was not over there when the trouble began.

People have become accustomed to the early closing movement and they do not mind it now. At first they were put to a little inconvenience, but they have learned how to regulate their shopping hours.

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many years' standing, may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is the great pile cure. W. H. Coerver.

John Hope was here yesterday and he and Ben Adams consoled together. They placed their arms around the necks of each other and saturated their shirt fronts with tears of scalding weep.

Mrs. Theodore Osterloh of Joplin is here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Stehr and Mrs. Buck.

Miss Bertha Geldmacher was a passenger on the War Eagle from St. Louis to-day. She will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

L. J. Albert and his niece, Miss Nettie Albert came down from St. Louis on the steamer War Eagle this afternoon.

R. E. Cannon met with an accident at the water works plant a day or two since and is laid up at home nursing an injured leg. The injury was neglected at the time and it has developed into something quite serious.

Anent the reported driving out of those negro laborers at Thebes. It is stated that Alderman Ed Burke of Cairo, who had a contract on the C. & E. I. road near Thebes, is the only man who has succeeded in working a gang of negroes in that section for years.

The Cairo papers are doing the square thing in registering a kick because Detective Murray of the Illinois Central is taking to himself the credit of running down those train robbers. Chief of Police Mahoney of Cairo is the man to whom the credit should go for getting the first clue and then following it up. As a faithful, efficient and intelligent officer, Chief Mahoney has few equals and no superiors. He is "hot stuff" and a terror to evil-doers.

Order of Publication.

In the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas, within and for the county of Cape Girardeau and State of Missouri.

In Vacation, July 11, 1900. Jacques Edmond Dutray, Anseme Noemie Fillette Dutray, widow of Emile Arthur Crissandean and Amanda Chamont Dutray and her husband Jean Jacques Chomot, Plaintiffs.

Pauline Fougeu, Albert Edward Constant Fougeu, Pauline Fougeu DeCoster, Edward Paulin Fougeu and Jane Fougeu, Defendants.

NOW on this day comes the plaintiffs before the undersigned clerk of the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas, within and for the county of Cape Girardeau and State of Missouri, in vacation and file their petition, and affidavit, stating among other things that the defendants, Pauline Fougeu, Albert Edward Constant Fougeu and Pauline Fougeu DeCoster are non residents of the State of Missouri. It is therefore ordered by the clerk of said court aforesaid in vacation that publication be made, notifying them that an action has been commenced against them by petition in the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas, the object and general nature of which is for partition and division of the following described real estate, situate in the city and county of Cape Girardeau and State of Missouri, to-wit:

Part of lot number two (2) in range "D" in the City of Cape Girardeau in the County and State aforesaid, more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Commence at the northwest corner of said lot number two (2) in range "D" in said city, run thence south along Main or German street forty-seven (47) feet, thence east parallel with Broadway about one hundred and thirty-four (134) feet to Levee or Front street, thence north parallel with Main or German street, forty-seven (47) feet to Broadway, thence west along Broadway about one hundred and thirty-four (134) feet to the point of beginning.

Among the plaintiffs and defendants according to their respective rights set forth in their petition, filed in this cause, and that if partition cannot be made in kind, to have said real estate sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their respective interests, and that unless they be and appear at the next term of this court to be held at the court house in the city of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, on Monday the 24th day of September, 1900, and on or before the third day thereof (if the term shall so long continue, if not, then before the end of the term) and answer to the petition hereof judgment and decree will be rendered for partition of said real estate among those entitled thereto according to the finding of said court, and if the real estate cannot be divided in kind without great prejudice then the court will order the said real estate sold. It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Cape Girardeau DEMOCRAT, a newspaper published in the city and county of Cape Girardeau for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next regular term of this court. A true copy.

E. H. ENGELMANN, Clerk.

July 14th 1900

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that letters of administration with the will annexed upon the estate of Caspar Roth, deceased, were granted to the undersigned by the Clerk of the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas of Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, bearing date the 2nd day of July, 1900.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to her for allowance within one year from the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of such estate; and if said claims be not exhibited within two years from the date of the publication of this notice, they will be forever barred.

WILHELMINE ROTH, Administratrix.

July 12th

FINAL SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given to all creditors and others interested in the estate of Edward D. Engelmann, deceased, that the undersigned executor of said estate intends to make final settlement thereof at the next term of the Probate Court of Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, to be held at the court house in the city of Jackson on Monday, August 13th, 1900.
